Wednesday, July 27. 1720.

London, July 27.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from France of Saturday.

From the Gazette a-la-Main.

Paris, August 3.

ON the 30th past the King's Ordinance (dated the 20th of the same Month) was set up, ordering the Paper Traffick to be transferred to the Exchange, which his Majesty has to this End established in the Gardens of the Hotel de Soissons, and forbidding the carrying on of the same any where else, on Pain of 1000 Crowns against the Offenders. The same Day a Regulation was affixed in the Name of M. de Baudry, Lieutenant of the Police, for maintaining good Order in that Place, which is to this Effect: 1. There are to be two Corps de Guards, one for the Officers, and another for the common Soldiers. 2. There shall be two Gates in the Garden Wall, and at each of them two Swifs in the King's Livery. 3. The Traders shall meet only in working Days, in the Summer Time from 7 in the Morning till 7 in the Evening, and in the Winter from 8 in the Morning till 5 in the Evening. 4. No Traders or Keepers of Offices shall remain there on pain of Imprisonment after the Time appointed, which shall be made known half an Hour before by sound of Trumpet. 5. No Offices shall be kept any where in the Neighbourhood of those Gardens on pain of Imprisonment, and a Fine of 3000 Livres. 6. To prevent the Losses of Pocket Books and other the like Accidents, it is prohibited to strike up any Bargain but within the Offices erected to this End, which shall be marked with Numbers, in order to have Recourse thither in case of Mistakes in Computation. 7. No Artificers, Workmen, Hawkers, Footmen, or other Persons who have no Business there to be admitted on Pain of Imprisonment for the first Offence, and of more heavy Punishment, if the Offence be repeated. 8. No Coaches, Chairs, or other Carriage to enter the Place. There is another Condition which was forgot to be inserted in this Regulation, viz. that for each Bargain made in those Offices 50 Sols shall be paid, which will amount to great Sums every Day. This Regulation took Effect on the 1st Instant. The Officers of the Troops incamping near Charenton, have represented to M. le Blanc, Secretary at War, that it is impossible for them to subsist unless their Pay be considerably augmented. A numerous Body of those Forces approached on the 2d Instant as far as the General Hospital. This, together with the late Arrêt for raising the Species, and another issued since for raising the small Coin by two Fifths of what it lately went for, has doubled the Price of all Goods. It was expected that the Bank Bills and India Actions would rise at the like Rate, but the Bills were only at Par, and the Actions at 5260; two Hours after the Bills were at 8 or 10 per Cent. Discount, and the Actions fell to 4960, and so they continue. A Begining was made Yesterday of paying Bills of 100 Livres, and though Money goes at present at three times its intrinsic Value, the Crowd was such that there was no Possibility of approaching; so that those who have present Occasion for Money, chuse rather to dispose of their Bills at some Discount in the new Paper Exchange, than hazard their Lives in the Throng.

Paris, Aug. 3. The following Arrêt has been published here.

Arrêt of the King's Council of State relating to the Annuities on the Town-House of Paris, and the Bank of current Accompts; of the 31st of July, 1720.

THE King having pointed out divers Outlets for employing the Bank Bills of 10000

Livres and 1000 Livres, partly by creating Annuities on the Town-House of Paris, partly by establishing a Bank of current Accompts; and it being his Majesty's Design to accelerate the Execution thereof, the Report being heard, his Majesty by the Advice of the Duke of Orleans Regent, ordains, that after the 1st of August next, the Keeper of the Royal Treasury shall not receive any more Funds for the Acquisition of the 25 Millions of Livres of Annuities created on the Town-House of Paris by the Edict of June last, and that what shall be wanting and not be raised within the said Time of the said 25 Millions of Annuities, shall be restored and belong to the India Company to enjoy it as they could have done before they yielded that Sum up again to his Majesty. It is also his Majesty's Will, that after the last of April at Paris, and on the 15th of September in the Provinces, no more Bank Bills shall be received in the Bank of current Accompts, and that what shall be wanting for making up the Fund thereof be filled up by the India Company: It is however his Majesty's Will, that the Bank Bills shall after those Terms remain current in Commerce and be received in Payment, till they be entirely discharged, &c.
